FOREWORD

In this year of 1943, much interest lies in activities of a military nature. In line with this trend, we have chosen a patriotic theme for this year's Nor'easter. We present a picture of life at Northeast as compared with the program of the Army.

FOOTBALL

COACH E. A. MARKEY

A toast to a "swell fella" and the best football coach a school could ever have. Northeast is proud of her football coach.

MR. D. L. DENISTON

Here is a man who receives little credit for a "whale of a job." All financial problems are left to Mr. Deniston who cheerfully and accurately smooths them out.

Coach E. A. Markey's eleven provided variety deluxe for the fans of the 1942 football season. Although he lacked experienced men, Coach, with the assistance of three returning lettermen managed to guide the team into fourth place.

The Vikings finished with a total of ninety-nine points scored against their opponents throughout the season. Only fifty-six points were tallied against them. The Norsemen fought hard on the defense and harder on the offense.

Being smaller than the usual Northeast team, the wearers of the purple and white had to rely upon trickery and speed. These tactics proved successful and once the Vikings got started, they were hard to stop.

Carl Capra, co-captain, acted as team captain all during the season. His decisions were wise, his experience great, and his smile seldom, if ever, disappeared. He secured the position of right end on the All-Star Team.

Fullback Sal Franks, also voted co-captain, was smaller than Capra but he picked up many a yard by his line bucks.

The second team also fought hard during the 1942 season. Their efforts were appreciated by their opponents more than those of the first team as they finished in first place.

Mr. George Calvert, coach of the second team of years past, was called to serve his country, so Jay Anderson, Northeast alumnus, took over the job of coaching the second team.

Nine lettermen will be returning next year to give glory to the purple and white.

BASKETBALL

COACH REEVES PETERS

Nine times the Northeast track squad has taken first place in the city meet and for more than twenty years her basketball team has finished in the upper brackets. Coach Peters has been the inspiration for all of the above teams. Northeast is proud of Coach Peters.

Managers—"Pee Wee" Frederick and "Curly" Feiring

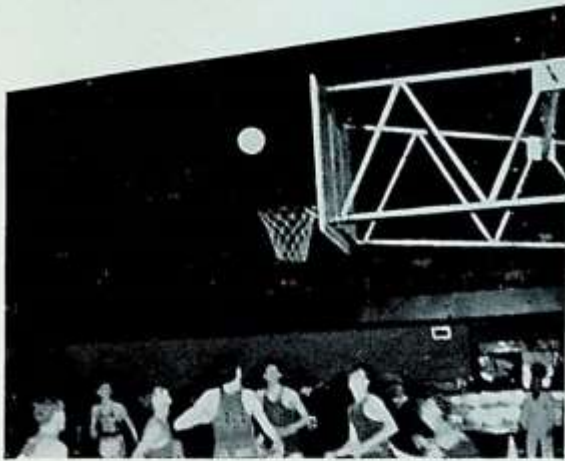

CHEERLEADERS

The fives of Chrisman, Ward, and Rockhurst proved too powerful for the Viking basketweers and their single lettermen. Off to a poor start, Coach Peters' Norsemen fought gallantly to redeem themselves in the Interscholastic League race. In this, they fought an uphill battle and although they were defeated four times, the purple and white waved over victory thrice.

Foreseen hopes are established in five returning lettermen. "Chuck" Shields, forward, was elected to the second all-star team and Mike Miller, center, was given an honorable mention.

SERGEANT DOYLE C. WOOD

MAJOR RICHARD HARRINGTON

Sergeant Doyle C. Wood enlisted in the Army, June 20, 1934, and was stationed with Company I of the 17th Infantry. He served with this company for six years attaining the rank of Sergeant. He then received a discharge from the Army after which he stayed out seven months. Then in 1941 in view of the national emergency he reenlisted in the Headquarters Company at the reception center in Fort Leavenworth. He was promoted after 27 days to the rank of sergeant and was sent to Kansas University where he was an instructor in College R. O. T. C. He remained there until December 1942 when he came to Northeast as Sergeant Instructor. Since that time he has done remarkably well, having the largest R. O. T. C. Unit in Kansas City under his command. He is exceptionally well liked by all the cadet officers under him as well as the non-coms and privates.

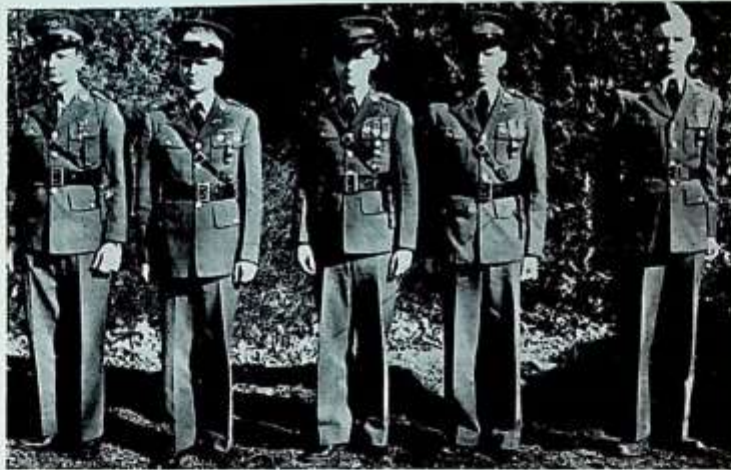

To you, Sergeant Wood, we render a lasting salute in accordance with your fine teachings, sportsmanship, and accomplishments, and a sincere wish for your luck and success with R. O. T. C. next year and the years to come.

The Northeast Battalion was ably commanded this year by Major Richard Harrington.

Major Harrington has always been an efficient R. O. T. C. cadet. He was promoted to Sergeant in his second year, and was made a Second Lieutenant last year when he was a Senior I. This year he rose from the rank of Second Lieutenant to the rank of Major which he now holds.

Major Harrington has been outstanding and a leader in other school activities also, being a member of the Student Council and on the Honor Roll.

EARLY MORNING PARADE

R.O.T.C. HOP

The annual R.O.T.C. Hop, although somewhat handicapped by wartime restrictions, proved to be a very colorful and memorable occasion.

The Gym was decorated in the traditional Red, White, and Blue, with a false ceiling and posters pertaining to R.O.T.C. The grand march was led by Major Harrington and Captain Schweer, climaxed by the customary march under the sabers. The dance was attended by Colonel Bondy and Captain Little of R.O.T.C. Headquarters and many of the other Sgt. instructors. Mr. Laughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Miss Miller, and Miss Weaver attended as chaperones. Due to shortage of film, pictures were not taken.

SAFETY PINS

The Safety Pins were organized in order to work in co-operation with the Safety Committee of the Student Council for the purpose of aiding in the promotion of safety in Northeast.

High school students know the rules of safety but need to be reminded of them frequently in a positive rather than a negative way. The work of the Safety Pins therefore has been to do the reminding by such things as original playlets about the different angles of safety and by presenting them over the radio, in community club meetings, in assemblies, and at the Safety Fair. Thus the precepts of living safely are not preached monotonously and the community and the city can be left in touch not only with the fine work done in safety by Northeast High School students but are themselves aware of the fine safety record of the entire Northeast District, that of first place.

Some honors going to Northeast have been national C.B.S. radio award of first place for an original bicycle playlet presented over K.M.B.C.; third place in the ninety-five exhibits in the Safety Fair; a radio playlet written and given for nurse recruitment of the American Red Cross; a dramatic introduction also given for the presentation of the A.A.U. bicycle award to the Northeast student body; and safety assemblies for special days such as Thanksgiving and introduction of police officials who visit Northeast from time to time.

The Safety Pins also aid the Safety Committee in Bicycle Day advertisement and presentation. The group is composed of seven or eight members who elect next year's members in the late spring of each year upon the basis of ability both to write and to present their original ideas.

SENIOR WILL

We, the Senior Class are leaving this beautiful building where we have joyfully spent the last three years. Before we leave, however, we wish to tell the Sophomores the best times of our life have been had in connection with this, our school, and we hope they make the best use of the years they have remaining. We shall always remember the days at Northeast and we ask the Juniors to carry on in true Nor'easter fashion. Now to these people, the leaders in future years, we leave the following:

Bill Reed leaves his title of Tall, Dark and Handsome to Milie (Muley) Wade.

CLASS PROPHECY

Flash! The basement of an old building at 415 South Van Brunt has just been uncovered after being destroyed by fire five years ago. In a can near the furnace was found the records of the graduating class of 1943. Evidently they had been placed there to be destroyed in hopes their terrible contents would never become known. A few items from those contents are given below for your consideration of the dark and shady pasts of some members of the class of '43 still alive this year of '65.

Lawrence Allred, "Einstein the Second," was then struggling through solid geometry along with thirty others.

Juanita Horner, the currently popular Metropolitan Opera Star, had captured all the boys' hearts with her singing.

Bill Schweer, the newly crowned "King of Swing," was just a kid that played in the band.

The nation's top novelist, Muriel McGill, true to her trade, had won a lot of contests with her stories.

Randall Palmer, world famous architectural engineer, was engineering himself into and out of trouble again.

His assistant and chief draftsman, Bob Schaffhausen, was drafting under "Prof." Jackson in all the spare time he could muster.

Charles Jones, National Hi-Y Secretary, was very active in Hi-Y during his four years and was president of the Senior Class.

Georgia Lee Frances, accompanist to "The Great Delhune," was the mainstay of the stage band with her rhythm on the 88.

The president of Montgomery Ward & Co., Bill Allison, had beautiful black curly hair (it still is) and was the girls' No. 1 idol.

Arvilla Drinkard is still thrilling millions with that old favorite "Brazil" like she used to thrill us at Northeast.

Jack Sampson, funniest man in vaudeville, and his two straight men, Bill Burton and Glenn Merys, who have just completed a successful run on Broadway with their play, "Two Mad Artists and a Crackpot," and are starting another, "Three Jerks on a Line," were the practical jokers of Northeast.

Dorothy Oldham, president of the Business Women's Club, was the brainstorm of the senior class and her new and novel ideas were ignored by everyone.

Jimmie Fetters, successor to Harry James' title of Trumpet King, was hitting it out solid on "You Made Me Love You" whenever he got the chance.

Margaret Moore, private secretary to Douglas Vanderbilt, kept the Student Council minutes straight while at Northeast.

The nation's lumber magnate, Albert Hancock, was the one who knew all the teachers and how to get good grades from them.

James Keal, the Beau Brummel of Cafe Society, was "King of the Wolf Pack" and had all the girls spellbound by his attentiveness.

Raymond Gillespie, internationally famous brain (?) specialist, was right tackle on the football team and any kind of tackle when he went after a girl.

His lovely laboratory assistant, Marilyn Cash, had her tongue wrapped around her eye tooth in Spanish Class along with muchas otras personas.

Joanne List, newly appointed director of the William Rockhill Nelson Gallery of Art, was Miss Newitt's prize pupil.

Dick Harrington, Northeast's representative in the Armed forces, a Brigadier General now, is still having fun with his stop watch checking his men's cadence.

Frank Taylor, director of Rockefeller Research Laboratories, whom every one thought crazy because he loved Physics, has just discovered something new, "Why an atom is an atom or vice versa."

Bill Barnett, whose hair you see on all famous shampoo advertisements, had to have a special comb (wire) and comber (my, but she was sweet).

Mary Lou Nedervelt, Hollywood fashion expert and author of "How to become attractive in five easy lessons," was the style setter of the year.

Mary Jane Markel, wife of the wealthy Hugh Snodgrass, Wall Street Broker, was voted the girl with the best "come hither" look in her eyes.

David Miller, concert pianist, now on tour in Kansas City, was Northeast's best entertainer in the musical line.

Edith Long, Director of Physical Education in the W.A.A.C., was never seen without a basketball or hockey stick in her hand.

The third baseman for the Yankees, Don "Eyebrows" Heinzman, was always "batting the breeze" in drafting class.

Mary Phillips, notable Red Cross and social worker, was always the most enthusiastic person in school when we had any type of a charity campaign.

Cameron Woods, hair stylist for prominent society elites, was practicing his future trade on the manes of his father's horses.

Richard Sayles, owner of the international jewelry syndicate, made his start at Northeast when all the space he had then was his coat lapel.

Dale Nelson, reducing expert you hear Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at 8:30 a. m. on N.E. H.S., was just the guy in the corner in the algebra class—he knew nothing, we knew nothing.

Lorraine Hays, successor to "Elsie Maxwell" for giving wonderful receptions, was always on the receiving line, for overtimes and everything.

Rosetta Welliver has just completed her interview with Hiram Smith, American Governor of Germany. It took her back to her Newswriting days at Northeast.

Clifford Sims, newly elected Governor of Missouri, was the "Irving Berlin" of Van Brunt.
